He Knows

Shawn Thomas once shared the story of how several years ago in Bristow, Oklahoma, there were a series of contests at the halftime of their high school basketball games. In these contests, people were blindfolded, and when the buzzer sounded, they could run around and try to pick up money which had been scattered around the gym floor. Most of the contestants did not do very well; they picked up a few random bills, but not many.

Finally, one particular man did really well; he went right to the biggest bills and took in quite a haul. He had been blindfolded; how did he do it?

When asked, he said that he had seen in previous contests how most people just ran around without direction and let the screams of the crowd direct them to go first one way, and then another. So, he decided in advance that he was going to pick out ONE person who could see the money on the floor, and he would listen to the voice of that person who could see what he could not see, and let them direct him to the money – and so he did. And his plan paid rich dividends!

You and I need to do the same thing. But to whom should we listen?

God can see what we can't see. He has a lot more information than we do. In fact, God knows everything; He is omniscient, all-knowing.

So if we are wise, we will do well to trust Him and to obey Him.

God knows what we need and He has revealed to us what we need to know in His Word.

He knows... that our greatest need is salvation from sin, for sin condemns us and it will lead to our destruction (Romans 3:23; Matthew 7:13-14).

He knows... that we need someone to come to our rescue, so He did. God sent His Son into the world "to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10). He came to rescue us by dying on the cross for our sins so that we might be forgiven of our sins and receive the gift of eternal life (John 3:16; Romans 6:23; Ephesians 1:7).

He knows... that we must listen to His Word and accept His offer on His terms if we're going to enjoy these eternal, spiritual blessings that are much greater than gold. "And the Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!' And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely" (Revelation 22:17).

God will save and give eternal life to those who place their faith and trust in Jesus (Acts 16:30-31), turn from their sins in repentance (Acts 17:30-31), confess Jesus before men (Romans 10:9-10), and are baptized (immersed) into Christ for the forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). The Lord knows those that are His (2 Timothy 2:19) and will continue to cleanse from sin those who continue to walk in the light of His Word (1 John 1:7-9).

God is omniscient; He knows what we don't know. And so more than anything else, we need to put our trust in Him, listen to His revealed will, and heed His instructions. Won't YOU?

Kid's Konnection: A special program of teaching for all youth K-6th Grade this evening at 5 p.m. Parents, please make sure your children are in attendance.

Teen Game Night: Saturday at 6 p.m. at the Dan and Sara Beth's house.

Each One Brings One Sunday: Next Sunday every member of the Mars Hill congregation is challenged to bring at least one guest to worship. Brother Mickey Burleson will be with us to deliver three powerful lessons on "Accepting The Call To Greatness." Following the morning worship, we will share in a potluck meal. Let's fill the building!

Potluck: Everyone is invited to share in a potluck meal following the morning service next week. Please bring enough for your family and a little extra for your guests.

Building Fund: Next week's contribution will go toward our building payment. Please be as generous as possible.

Football: Saturday, October 6th, the 30's and 40's Group are invited to Dan and Sara Beth's house to watch the football game.

Area-Wide Gospel Singing: Mark your calendar! Mars Hill is hosting a singing on Saturday, October 20th, at 6 p.m. Be inviting your family and friends to join us. Refreshments will be served following the singing.

Fish Fry, Fall Festival and Trunk-Or-Treat: A Fall Festival and Trunk-Or-Treat for our children and children of the community is being planned for Saturday, October 27th. Your help is needed providing games and decorating the trunk of your car for the children to visit. If you are willing to help in any way, please see Kim Wells or Debbie Moody. Fish Fry meal served at 4 p.m.; Games at 5 p.m.; Visit Trunk-Or-Treat at 6 p.m.
