Refreshments following the singing

Three Crosses

“Then one of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, ‘If you are the Christ, save Yourself and us.’ But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, ‘Do you not even fear God seeing you are under the same condemnation? And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong.’ Then he said to Jesus, ‘Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’ And Jesus said to him, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.’ Now it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the earth until the 9th hour. Then the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. And when Jesus cried out with a loud voice, He said, ‘Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit.’ Have said this, He breathed his last” (Luke 23:29-46).

This is a scene that displays three crosses. One cross pictures a thief dying IN sin, and the other a thief dying TO sin. The center cross portrays the Redeemer dying FOR sin. The center cross divides all humanity into one of two categories. Those who reject Christ and die IN sin, and those who receive Christ and die TO sin. Which category are you in?

“Then he said to Jesus, “Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom.’ And Jesus said to him, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise’” (Luke 23:42-43). In order to justify their rejection of “baptism for the remission of sins,” many assert, “The thief was saved and he wasn’t baptized!” Their argument is built on at least three assumptions:

- 1) The thief was never baptized. The thief could have been baptized under John (Matthew 3:5), or under Jesus (John 4:1). We don’t know if he was baptized; they assume that he wasn’t.
- 2) They can be saved in the same manner as the thief. The only way one could be saved as was the thief is having Jesus say to him, “Today you will be with Me in Paradise.” Of course, since Jesus has gone back to heaven, this could never happen.
- 3) They are under the same law as the thief. Christ’s law did not go into effect until after His death (Hebrews 9:16-17); so, the thief lived and died under a different law than ours.

Will you not be baptized “for the remission of sins” as commanded in God’s holy law?

David

“I expect to pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any fellow creature, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again? – Quaker Proverb, Household Words: A Weekly Journal. 1859
