Refreshments following the singing

Your Help Is Needed!

- Be planning, praying, and inviting.
- Sign up to bring refreshments.
- Help will be needed cleaning up and getting things ready for Sunday morning following the Singing.

We Are All Priests

“And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by men, but is choice and precious in the sight of God, you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” (1 Pet. 2:4-5).

Under the old covenant, only the Levites could serve as priests. Those priests had two functions:

- They offered up sacrifices in worship
- They were to “to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses” (Lev. 10:11).

Under the new covenant, however, every Christian is a priest. Every Christian has the responsibility:

- To worship.
- To teach others the unsearchable riches of Christ.

“But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy” (1 Pet. 2:9-10).

There are souls all around you that need the gospel of Jesus Christ, and God has asked every Christian to be involved in proclaiming the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

David

- Good timber and good men do not grow with ease. The stronger the wind the stronger the trees.
- Knowledge humbles the great man, astonishes the common man, and puffs up the little man.
- Stop rolling out your peevs and start rolling up your sleeves.
- Wise parents and good books enable one to succeed in faith and life. They may be poor, but never too poor to buy books for their children. It is a mean sort of poverty that starves the mind to feed the body.
