A Special Day

Father's Day is a Time to Remind Fathers

- a time to remind fathers to bring up their children “in the training and instruction of the Lord” (Eph. 6:4) by “encouraging, comforting and urging them to live lives worthy of God” (1 Thess. 2:11-12)
- a time to remind fathers to work at leaving a positive impression on their children, not to provoke or exasperate them (Eph. 6:4)

Father's Day is a Time to Remind Children

- a time to remind children that to honor and obey their fathers isn't just for the benefit of the parent but also for their own good “so that it may go well with” (Prov. 19:26; 20:20; 23:22; Eph. 6:1-3)
- a time to remind children of the joy they can bring to their father by living wisely, not merely by what they say on this one special day (Prov. 15:20; 23:24-25; 29:3)

Father's Day is a Time to Remember the Greatest

Father

- a time to remember God as “a father to the fatherless” (Ps. 27:10; 68:5) who comforts those who did not grow up with a father or who perhaps had an ungodly father who wasn't there for them as he should have been
- a time to remember God as the Greatest Father who can serve as a role model for earthly fathers (Matt. 7:9-11; Heb. 12:7-10; 1 Jn. 3:1)

Those involved in providing our devotional time on Wednesday evenings are asked to please help us be ready to begin our Bible Study time by 7:15.

a godly Father is:

Faithful, to God and family.

Able, to discern God's will in trying times and good times.

Thankful, for all the joys and trials of life.

Happy, no matter what the life brings.

Enthusiastic, about a life lived with purpose.

Righteous, rock-solid in heart and mind, from a growing relationship with Jesus.

For these things and so many more we praise God for our Fathers, this Father's Day and always.

A Dad Leads by Example

"I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth." - 3 John 4 (NIV)

"Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it." - Proverbs 22:6 (NIV)

The most important job of a father is to lead children to "walk in the truth." The Bible says that starting kids out with God and the gospel will have a profound impact throughout their lives.
