At Your House

By Wendell Winkler

Will priorities be established in your children when...

- You are early for their ballgame, but late for worship?
- You check on their homework regularly, but never check on their Bible class lessons?
- You won't let them miss school even though they don't want to go, but let them miss church worship services?
- You won't let them stay up late on school nights, but let them stay up late on Saturday night.
- You will serve as room mother at their school or volunteer at school, but will not help with classes, activities, programs which involve spiritual matters?
- You attend open house at their school, but do not visit their class room of Bible school, or even know where their class meets?
- You support, attend, or even participate in their sports activities (baseball, softball, basketball, volleyball, etc.) but regularly miss activities involving the church?
- You never (almost never) miss meeting with the civic or social club of which you are a member, but frequently miss worship services?
- You go to work even though you do not feel like it, but stay home on Sunday in the same condition?

Those involved in providing our devotional time on Wednesday evenings are asked to please help us be ready to begin our Bible Study time by 7:15.

“Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee: because he trusted in Thee” (Isaiah 26:3)

Sometimes the troubles of life come upon us suddenly without any prior warning. It is then that the child of God, with broken plans and a crushed heart experiences the precious peace that comes from a mind anchored in the Lord. The peace of God can best be appreciated when the tests of life are the greatest.

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the Heaven”
(Ecclesiastes 3:1)

The seasons come and go with a special rhythm designed by the Master Creator. The older we grow often the faster the seasons seem to fly by. Solomon talked about learning from the seasons and how God has a purpose and plan for everything. That means, God has a plan and purpose for you. There is no greater joy than to know the Lord Jesus as Savior and to discover His plan.
