Saturday, October 26th
Meal Served at 4 p.m.

Fall Festival and Trunk-Or-Treat Following

Everyone is invited! So, please invite someone today so you can remind them again as the time gets closer. Be an encourager!

Everyone's help is needed! Please see the sheets on the tables in foyer. Please use this opportunity to serve in some way.

Those involved in providing our devotional time on Wednesday evenings are asked to please help us be ready to begin our Bible Study time by 7:15.

Until Then...

Someday, I will never feel mentally and physically exhausted after a busy Sunday. Someday, I will never be worried that my sermon didn't connect. Someday, I will never again wonder if I'm are going to be able to keep this up.

Someday, I will never again stand beside the grave of the dearest person on earth to me. Someday, I will never again have to watch someone I love suffer with cancer, heart disease, or any number of other physical issues.

Someday, I will never have my heart torn apart because someone I trusted turned their back on God's people and walked out on the Lord and His Church. Someday, I will never again endure the pain of seeing a family member deny the faith.

Someday, I will never again experience sadness, depression, loneliness, weariness, desertion, distress, or disappointment.

Someday, I will know only peace, contentment, joy, fulfillment, and eternal bliss. Someday, I will see the face of our Savior, and those I love who have gone on before me.

Someday, my faith will be complete, my hope will become sight, my tears will be stopped, my questions will be answered, and my love will be perfected.

Until then, I will do my best to be obedient to the commands of Jesus. Until then, I will work to bring as many people as possible to the Savior. Until then, I will praise God with everything within me. Until then, I will be faithful to my King.

Until then, I will try my best to be motivated to do His will. Until then, I will endeavor to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Until then, I will serve others, encourage others, and love others.

Until then...

David
