Those of you who are sports fans are aware. The 2017 Houston Astros cheated. Their only World Series title was gained by dishonest means. The commissioner of baseball has decided not to void the Astros' win, but nonetheless, it shouldn't be this way. The Astros did not earn it fairly by their own skill. They are allowed to keep their World Series rings, but deep down they all know that they do not deserve them. What a shame.

My name is in the book of life. I do not deserve to have it there; but it is there. I did not earn it!
