“There is one subject which we never hear too much of: we can never hear too much of Christ. When ministers are wearied of preaching Him, they are false ministers: when people are wearied of hearing of Him, their souls are in an unhealthy state. When ministers have preached Him all their lives, the half of His excellence will remain untold. When hearers see Him face to face in the day of His appearing, they will find there was more in Him than their hearts ever conceived.”

— J. C. (John Charles) Ryle

“Let’s quit fiddling with religion and do something to bring the world to Christ.”

— Billy Sunday

“The expository preacher is not one who ‘shares his studies’ with others, he is an ambassador and a messenger authoritatively delivering the Word of God to men.”

— Iain H. Murray
