"Building anticipation into one's preaching simply calls for one basic understanding of the task of the pulpit: the goal is not to get something said but to get something heard." — Fred Craddock

"People have an idea that the preacher is an actor on a stage and they are the critics, blaming or praising him. What they don't know is that they are the actors on the stage; he (the preacher) is merely the prompter standing in the wings, reminding them of their lost lines." — Søren Kierkegaard

"My grand point in preaching is to break the hard heart and to heal the broken one." — John Newton

"There may be small congregations, but there is never a small sermon." — Author Unknown

"This is a day in which one of our great perils is that of doing a thousand little things to the neglect of the one thing, which is preaching." — John MacArthur, JR
