What Are You Preaching Today?

The first sermon preached each Sunday is not by the pulpit preacher, but by you.

You preach a message about the importance of the Scriptures by bringing your Bible. You preach a message of good cheer when you say "Good morning!" to those you meet when you park your car and when you are in the hallway and classroom. You preach a message of hope and joy when you sing enthusiastically during the song service. You preach a message about the power of prayer when you fervently enter into our times of prayer together. You preach a message of respect when you listen attentively while the preacher is speaking. You preach a message of love when you smile, say "hello," and introduce yourself to visitors. You preach a message of faith when you give your offering.

Many messages are preached before the preacher stands up to bring his message. If your message is positive and consistent, then the message from the pulpit will be much better received. Come each Sunday prepared to preach your sermon!

David

If you need an excuse, ask your preacher. He has heard hundreds of them.

You'll never have joy if your joy depends on what others think of you. Let your joy come from what God thinks of you.
