Everyone Needs Someone They Can Depend Upon

Even though people make and break promises every day, there is one source of promises on which we can always depend. God promised to provide a way to save us from spiritual destruction. He can be depended on to fulfill all the promises made to us that are revealed through His word. Nothing can be more comforting than knowing that these sweet and precious promises (2 Peter 1:4) made by God through Christ are the sure thing and can never be broken!
