“For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God” (1 Peter 2:20)

We tell our children to do right and promise them that when they do right good things will happen. This may be true as a general rule; but it is not an absolute truth. Sometimes in our sin-filled world it seems that the more good we do the more we are hated. We must be prepared for the possibility of suffering when doing good (1 Peter 3:17; 1 Peter 4:19).

If we suffer for doing good, we need to realize that we are in good company. The more good Jesus did, the more He was despised. It was the healing of a crippled man that led the Pharisees to seek to take His life (Matthew 12:14). John 10:32 indicates, the more His deeds pointed Him out as the Son of God, the more they hated Him.

We too are to be children of God. We don't stand in the unique relationship Jesus had; but we also will feel the anger of the world as we draw closer to our Heavenly Father. Remember the warning of Jesus: “A servant is not greater than his master; if they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you” (John 15:20).
