Happy Mother's Day

A godly mother is a woman of strength. God has chosen the woman to be the vessel by which the earth is populated (Genesis 3:16 and 1 Timothy 2:15). Titus 2:3-5 teaches a woman is to be reverent and devout, not to be a slanderer or social drinker, to be a teacher of what is right and noble and give good counsel. She is to wisely train other women to love their husbands, be sane, and sober minded. She is to be self-controlled, chaste, a homemaker (she makes the home), good natured, and kind-hearted. To fulfill such responsibilities, she would have to be extraordinarily strong!

A godly mother is known for her love. When all others forsake you, you can know your mother will stand by your side (Proverbs 4:3). In 1 Kings 3:16-28, a mother was willing to have her child taken from her, if it meant saving her baby's life. Even Mary, the Lord's mother, never left her son's side during His death on Calvary's cross (John 19:25-27). What strength!

A godly mother is known for faith. A mother's faith rubs off on her children (2 Timothy 1:5). Samuel became a prophet and judge of Israel. His faith is evident. But it all began with the faith of his mother, Hannah who trusted God and dedicated him to the Lord (1 Samuel 1-2). What a demonstration of strength!

Today and every day, we honor our godly mothers! We love and appreciate you all.

David
