

The Mars Hill Messenger

October 23, 2022

Thank You: Thank you to all who participated and donated to the Walk4Water.

Fish Fry and Trunk-or-Treat: Saturday at 5 p.m. at the Mars Hill building. Fish and fries provided. A Trunk-or-Treat will be held immediately following the meal. There is a sheet on the table in the foyer to sign up to help provide candy and decorate your car trunk. Please let us know if you are willing to help.

Workday: All men and boys are asked to meet at the home of Mary and Toma Walker on Saturday, November 5th, at 8 a.m. to do some tree trimming and cleanup.

Wednesday Meals: Everyone is invited to enjoy a meal at the building each Wednesday evening at 5:30 p.m.

Sr. Ministry Gathering: Everyone is invited to Camp Areopagus on Tuesday, November 1st, at 10:30 a.m. There will be a devotional led by Jason Almond, a wonderful meal, and great time of visiting and fellowship. This is a meeting planned by and for senior citizens but everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.

Mark Your Calendar: Sunday, December 11th. After services that morning, a pizza lunch will be served to our children and their parents/grandparents. After the lunch, gift baskets will be prepared for the elderly and shut-ins of our congregation and then delivered. It will be a wonderful time for our children. Parents, please help your child participate.

Full-Time Christians

Maybe you have heard about the farmer who told the preacher he had “gotten religion.” The preacher replied, “That’s fine, but are you sure you’re going to put aside all sin?” “Yes, sir,” said the farmer. “I’m through with sin!” “And are you going to pay up all your debts?” asked the preacher. “Now wait a minute,” said the farmer. “You ain’t talking religion, you’re talking business!”

It’s unfortunate that, like this man, so many suppose that we can be Christians in only part of our lives. People think we can have Christ in our “spiritual” lives while we reserve the right to do as we please in “secular” things. Scripture makes no such distinction!
