For several years the growing pains of the city that a ran a business increased almost daily. Traffic was always a major issue. Delays caused horns to blow as tempers flared. The intersection next to our building was the scene of an accident often, but Friday afternoon it never failed. Usually it was only a fender bender but the real problems occurred when the police asked those involved to explain why the accident happened. The stories and opinions ran from ridiculous to sublime. It would often make me concerned about the events told in history books. One Book that never fails to give us the correct information is Gods Word in scripture. John 17 verse 17 Christ prays for us "Sanctify them through thy truth, thy Word IS truth". ~Thomas
