Who Shall Stand Before the Lord?

Isaiah received a vision of the throne room of God (Isa. 6:1). Angels cried around him, "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts, The whole earth is full of His glory" (6:2-3). Here was Isaiah, a sinful man who lived among sinful people, standing in the holy presence of the Lord of hosts (6:4-5). "Woe is me for I am ruined" the prophet cries. However, the Lord took away Isaiah's iniquity. His sins were forgiven. (6:6-7). Isaiah had no trouble standing before the Lord after that. When the Lord asked, "Whom shall I send?" The prophet eagerly answered, "Here am I. Send me!" (6:8).

Those who have had their sins forgiven can boldly approach the Lord's throne of grace (Heb. 4:16). Those washed in the Son's blood are declared just by God (Rom. 3:24-26). No longer are we men of iniquity crying out for the Lord to depart from us (Luke 5:8). We are the fishers of men (Luke 5:10). We are those who stand (2 Cor. 5:10).
