Throughout the Bible occasions arise when someone undergoes a name change. Usually, it implies a change in the plan that God has for that individual. Jacob, the deceiver becomes Israel, wrestled with God. Hoshea, salvation becomes Joshua, God gives salvation. At the age of 99 Abraham has an encounter with God and is once more told he will be the father of many nations. His name is changed to Abraham. A subtle change of spelling to an affirmation of his promise. From exalted father, to the father of multitudes. A drastic name change for a man 99 years old with no children. Sometimes we expect momentous changes or a sudden impact when we ask God for help or for changes in our lives.

God can part the Red Sea or cause a gentle rain to fall from a small cloud. It's up to Him, not us. Listen to his still small voice.
