

The Mars Hill Messenger

March 10, 2024

Sympathy: A memorial service will be held for Dale Haynie at the building on March 23rd at 2 p.m. Our love and sympathy are extended to Wade, Kennedy and Ruth Ellen.

Egg Hunt: There will be an egg hunt held on March 30th at 3:00 p.m. Bring plastic eggs and candy to fill them. Children will need to bring a basket. There is a sign-up sheet in the foyer. See Lisa Hunter for details.

Magi Boxes: Please bring toothpaste and soap. We also need 98 yo-yos.

Greatest Achievement

I want to introduce myself. Most of the time we talk about all the things we have achieved like that I have been married for 31 years which is quite the achievement. I have four wonderful children, Chase, Paige, Shane and Sadie, and some of them have blessed me with grandchildren. I hope the other two are reading this and know how much I love being Poppop! I am kidding Shane and Sadie. My wife, Anji, and I do have four awesome grandchildren and we love being Poppop and Granji. I was a coach for twenty-two years and had a successful career. I currently own Skyward Roofing, so if you need a roof give me a call! But my greatest achievement I have accomplished in my life is being saved. I have not earned it, I could not afford it, and I am unworthy to be saved. I am saved by the blood of Jesus Christ. John the Baptist in John 1:29 proclaimed, "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world". Once that was proclaimed people began to follow Jesus. I am thankful my dad was a preacher and I grew up hearing the Word proclaimed and I became a Christian. Now years later I am proclaiming that same message that I pray helps people follow Jesus. My brother, two sons and son in law are all ministers. I am blessed that God called us into the ministry and I love being able to share with people the good news about Jesus Christ. How about you? What is your greatest achievement?

Grace and Peace, Keith Almond, aka "Poppop"
