The Love Boat

So many people in February hope to climb aboard the love boat and find love. There are many that feel like they have been left ashore. They feel they may never find the love like others have. Often it is because they are looking in the wrong places. Leah in Genesis 29 was that person. She was looking for children to cause her husband, Jacob, to love her. It took her having a few children to begin to praise the Lord. God is love and everyone can come aboard and find the love they have been looking for.

Love, we all want it,
Keith
